

Ballet Instructor/Director of Classical Ballet Thomas School of Dance
Bangor, Maine
thomasschoolofdance.com

Thomas School of Dance is seeking a highly experienced ballet teacher for long term employment as the primary ballet instructor for our classical ballet program serving pre-professional and recreational students. This position involves teaching 20-25 hours of classical ballet technique, partnering, variations, etc. as well as choreographing for the annual student production. Additional instruction hours available at our satellite schools if desired. Required skills include a thorough knowledge of classical ballet technique and ballet pedagogy for dance programming for students ranging in age approximately 7 through adult. Must be available for ongoing classes during afternoons and evenings as well as Saturdays September through the beginning of June. Additional summer classes available. Pay is commensurate with experience. The ideal candidate has significant professional performance and teaching experience and the desire and expertise to assume the artistic direction of Bangor Ballet <http://www.bangorballet.org/careers/>. To apply for teaching position send resume and cover letter to thomasschoolofdance@gmail.com